

Low Scaling Quantum Chemistry (LSQC) Program

User License Agreements

Please complete this form, scan and email it to us via lsqc@nju.edu.cn

(Dated: January 1, 2018)

The request is ONLY for person or group in university/school/academic institute. All LSQC Program requestors MUST agree to the following agreements which covers all LSQC source code and binaries:

1. I will not redistribute a copy of the source code or binaries to a third party. Instead, I will refer any requests for copies of the program to you at Nanjing University.

2. Publications in which the program is used should cite LSQC as: W. Li, C. Chen, D. Zhao, and S. Li, Int. J. Quantum Chem. 115, 641 (2015); S. Li, W. Li, Y. Jiang, J. Ma, T. Fang, W. Hua, S. Hua, D. Zhao, K. Liao, W. Zou, Y. Wang, X. Shen and B. Hong, LSQC Program, Version 2.3, Nanjing University, Nanjing, 2018, see <http://itcc.nju.edu.cn/lsqc>. Using specific methods included in LSQC may require citing additional articles. Using GEBF methods in LSQC should cite the following additional articles: [1] W. Li, S. Li, and Y. Jiang, J. Phys. Chem. A 111, 2193 (2007); [2] W. Hua, T. Fang, W. Li, J.-G. Yu, and S. Li, J. Phys. Chem. A 112, 10864 (2008); [3] S. Hua, W. Hua, and S. Li, J. Phys. Chem. A 114, 8126 (2010). [4] S. Li, W. Li, and J. Ma, Acc. Chem. Res. 47, 2712 (2014).

The updated lists of citing articles and recommended articles will be described in the manual.

3. I understand that copyright to LSQC is retained by contributors to the LSQC package. I will not modify the source code without permission, and will not incorporate any part of the source into any other programs.

4. I understand that no guarantee is made that the program is bug free, and no ability or responsibility is assumed for any limitations in the program.

5. Anyone in your research group is covered by the license and may share your copy of LSQC on all of your group's computer resources. This license will expired on December 31, 2022 and you need to renew it after that time.
